Participation

Teams and organizations can choose to participate in as many or as few Homecoming Competition contests as they desire.

- Gold Division: Up to three organizations with a total of no more than 250 members may combine to participate. Organizations cannot pair with the same groups for two consecutive years. Participants must be on the organization's member list in Eagle Engage before Homecoming starts. Membership and roster issues will be resolved between the Center for Student Engagement and organization advisors.
- Purple Division: Up to three organizations with a total of no more than 50 members may combine to participate. Organizations cannot pair with the same groups for two consecutive years. Participants must be on the organization's member list in Eagle Engage before Homecoming starts. Membership and roster issues will be resolved between the Center for Student Engagement and organization advisors.
- Residence Hall Division: Residence Hall units determined by Residential Life may participate. Residential Life will set and communicate participation rules.

Students should always prioritize their academic success. Homecoming will not provide excuses for missing classes.

Alcohol and Drug Policy

In line with Policy 302: Student Conduct, the unlawful manufacture, distribution, possession, or use of alcohol or any illegal drugs on Tennessee Tech Property or at any Tennessee Tech-Sponsored Activity, including Homecoming events, is prohibited. The Homecoming Committee reserves the right to disqualify any student organization from the Homecoming competition for policy violations. Violators may also face disciplinary actions under Policy 302: Student Conduct for violation of Tennessee Tech policies related to alcohol and/or illegal drugs.

Liability Notice

Tennessee Tech University and/or the Homecoming Committee are not responsible for injuries or damages incurred by participants in Homecoming events. The entrant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Tennessee Tech University and the Homecoming Committee members from any and all liability associated with their participation in the Homecoming events. Some events may require participants to sign a waiver of liability. Participants must also adhere to their own organization's insurance and risk management policies for Homecoming activities.

Points, Leaderboards, and Tie Breakers

Teams in all divisions earn points by participating in each contest. Bonus points are awarded to the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place teams for each division or for achieving specific performance thresholds. If a tie occurs in an individual contest, the teams' Crowdfunding amounts will break the tie. If a tie occurs in overall points, the highest-scoring parade team wins the Homecoming competition.
